

Worksheet 1: Verbs and Subjects (pp. 2-16) (DUE DATE: _____)
--

Name:Date:*Class Section:*Score:

Label out the verb and the subject.

Example: Theodore should have stayed.
 S V

The hyenas circled warily.
 S V

Quickly, Johnny blushed.
 S V

1. Under the bridge, the river flowed quietly.
2. The walls of the city had been whitewashed.
3. To everyone's surprise, it rained.
4. All was revealed.
5. The man ran after the thief.
6. Shaking gently, the mouse scurried past the cat.
7. This book stinks!
8. Into the piggy bank went the child's dollar.
9. My ambition had been squashed by my gym teacher.
10. Having found the door, the nervous lady relaxed.

Please sign on back →

“I affirm that I have done this worksheet solely on my own without anyone’s help and that I have not aided anyone else working on any worksheet in this section.”

SIGNATURE

DATE

Worksheet 2: Verbs, Subjects, and Direct Objects (pp. 16-21)
 (DUE DATE: _____)

Name:Date:*Class Section:*Score:

Label out each sentence element. Not every sentence will have a direct object.

Example: The crew should have encouraged its captain.
 S V DO

Jessica won a prize.
 S V DO

The keyboard fell to the floor.
 S V

1. The paper floated to the ground.
2. Mike's remark stung Alice.
3. Vitamin C fortifies the immune system.
4. Glancing to his left, the mailman dropped the letter into the gutter.
5. Contrary to expectations, the movie thrilled everyone in the audience.
6. Cats meow for Kitty Fritters.
7. The fountain pen spurting ink all over Mr. Jerry's new tie.
8. The blue paint brightened the room.
9. The nail in his foot depressed Kelly.
10. This phone is designed to ring loudly.

Please sign on back →

“I affirm that I have done this worksheet solely on my own without anyone’s help and that I have not aided anyone else working on any worksheet in this section.”

SIGNATURE

DATE

Worksheet 3: Verbs, Subjects, Direct and Indirect Objects (pp. 22-24)
 (DUE DATE: _____)

Name:Date:*Class Section:*Score:

Label out each sentence element. Not every sentence will have a direct object or an indirect object.

Example: The crew should have encouraged its captain.
 S V DO

Jessica won her boyfriend a prize.
 S V IO DO

The keyboard fell to the floor.
 S V

1. After the show, Maria left her purse in the auditorium.
2. In the sunny patch lay the kittens, purring.
3. The TV broadcast brought the Johnson family the Olympic Games.
4. The letter showed the insurance plan.
5. Mrs. Kelly gave the class a pop-quiz.
6. Laughing quietly, the masked man opened the window.
7. This medicine gives me a headache!
8. The frame held the picture nicely.
9. The director's vision gave new excitement to the employees.
10. Through the ring jumped the lion.

Please sign on back →

“I affirm that I have done this worksheet solely on my own without anyone’s help and that I have not aided anyone else working on any worksheet in this section.”

SIGNATUREDATE